

WHY YOU SHOULD INVEST IN THE HEALTH OF YOUR EMPLOYEES

Launching a good employee health program is a home run for businesses of all sizes, and the right scheme will even pay for itself, directly or indirectly. Learn why companies all over the world are making employee health and wellness a priority.

CHANCES ARE, YOUR PEOPLE AREN'T VERY ACTIVE - AND THAT COSTS YOUR COMPANY...

49.8%
of European adults
do not exercise

50%
of Europeans sit for 7.5 hours or more each day¹

Given that as much as 50% of your operating budget is invested in your workforce, you want them to be healthy and happy²

But do you really care if your employees are healthy and happy?
Absolutely. Let us tell you why...

HEALTHY EMPLOYEES ARE MORE ENGAGED

75%
of companies say wellness programs have a positive impact on engagement³

62%
of engaged employees feel their relationship with work improves their health⁴

All of which is important because highly-engaged employees are 21% more productive⁵

WHILE WE'RE ON THE SUBJECT OF PRODUCTIVITY...

- ✓ A study of 29,000 participants in 15 countries discovered that companies which promote health and wellness are also more likely to encourage creativity and innovation⁶
- ✓ 93% of employers report wellness having a positive impact on productivity
- ✓ People who exercise rarely are shown to be 50% more likely to suffer from low productivity, while people who exercise for at least 30 minutes, three times a week are 15% more likely to perform well at work⁷

PLUS, A HEALTHY WORKFORCE REDUCES YOUR TURNOVER

- ✓ Studies show that it costs 20% of their annual salary to replace a midrange employee, rising to 213% to replace an executive. High turnover is expensive⁸ and should be avoided.
- ✓ The good news is that 60% of employers report that wellness programs have had a positive impact on employee retention⁹
- ✓ And 80% of employees would rather stay in a job that offers benefits than leave for one with higher pay but no added extras¹⁰

EMPLOYEE WELLNESS PROGRAMS ATTRACT TALENT TOO

92%
of professionals
consider workplace wellness
an important benefit

87%
of employees
consider wellness programs
when looking for new jobs¹¹

AS WELL AS THE BENEFITS OF A HEALTHY WORKFORCE, IT'S IMPORTANT TO CONSIDER THE DOWNSIDES AND HIDDEN EXPENSES OF AN UNHEALTHY WORKFORCE...

- ✓ Each year, companies lose €600¹²-€2,700¹³ per employee due to health-related absenteeism
- ✓ Healthy employees are less absent due to illness - 22% of companies believe a lack of health and wellbeing programs leads to higher levels of health-related absenteeism¹⁴ in their organization.

STRESS HAS AN EVEN GREATER NEGATIVE IMPACT ON YOUR BUSINESS THAN ILLNESS

"Highly stressed" employees take 4.6 sick days per year, compared to 2.6 days taken by employees with low stress¹⁵

- ✓ 40% of employees face work-related stress levels high enough to impact their productivity, health, and family negatively¹⁶
- ✓ 80% of workplace accidents are attributed to stress¹⁷
- ✓ 20% of employees are now at risk of burnout at any time¹⁸
- ✓ The estimated global cost of workplace burnout is €270 billion¹⁹
- ✓ But it's not all bad news... exercise reduces stress and depression in 65% of people – the same success rate as antidepressants²⁰

OK, cut to the chase, what does this mean to the bottom line of your business?

3:1

According to numerous studies, the ROI for investment in health and wellness is around 3:1²¹

6:1

However, Harvard researchers estimate that for every €1 a company spends on health and wellbeing, they'll get €6 back for all the reasons we've explained above²².

75%

now provide employees with some health program or benefits for just that reason²³
